

IFAM Janaza Services (ACN 657 196 177)
Funeral Savings Fund
(Ph: 1 300 JANAZA)

IFAM Janaza Services Limited (IJS) has established a Funeral Savings Fund, for members of the Muslim community in Australia.

Anyone applying to join the Fund will make a monthly contribution of minimum $50, and minimum initial deposit of $500 per funeral. (Note for a 'double depth grave' if available, initial deposit of minimum $1000, and monthly contribution of minimum $50 is applicable). The periodic payments must be direct debit. All contributions will go towards the payment of the cost of their funeral either in part or in full, depending on the amount contributed into the fund and the cost of the funeral at the time of death. Members may make a lump sum contribution or quarterly contributions as arranged.

Under all circumstance the financial liability of the IJS, the Fund and its directors will be limited to the total amount contributed into the fund by the member.

The actual cost of the funeral in Australia, varies based on location and the time of burial, and hence will change periodically depending on the fees and charges. The average fees quoted will therefore be only an estimate. Any deficit between the actual cost of the funeral and contribution made into the fund at the time of death will have to be paid to IJS by the next of kin of the deceased as soon as possible. Any remaining funds in the members account after payment of funeral expenses incurred at death will be reimbursed to the nominated next of kin of the deceased. The suggested lump sum in March 2022 would be $8500 for burials taking place at the Kemps Creek Cemetery, NSW 2178, during office hours.

It is the responsibility of the member or the Next of Kin, to advise IJS of any changes to the details provided. It is also the responsibility of the member or the Next of Kin, to setup the regular contribution via direct debit in the nominated bank account, as detailed below:
